

PASS BA Day Anti-Harassment Policy

PASS BA Day provides business analytics professionals from a variety of backgrounds with an opportunity to connect, share, and learn. We value the strong sense of community that characterizes PASS events, and we seek to foster an inclusive, professional atmosphere.

We are dedicated to providing a harassment-free experience for everyone, regardless of gender, race, sexual orientation, disability, religion, or any other protected classification.

Everyone at BA Day is expected to follow the Anti-Harassment Policy. This includes but is not limited to: Attendees, Speakers, Partners, Exhibitors, Volunteers and PASS staff at any event which is managed by PASS or our Partners during PASS BA Day. Partners are required to affirm, uphold and enforce the PASS Anti-Harassment Policy during BA Day at any event which they organize in conjunction to PASS BA Day; Partners being all Sponsors and Exhibitors and anyone listing an event on the PASS BA Day website. All BA Day Attendees are expected to follow the Anti-Harassment Policy in any situation in which they are interacting with one another during PASS BA Day on or offsite; including non-event locations. Harassment in any form, will not be tolerated.

Participant Behavior

Harassment includes, but is not limited to, offensive verbal comments related to gender, race, sexual orientation, disability, religion, or any other protected classification directed toward an individual or group. Intimidation, threats, stalking, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome attention will also be considered harassment. Similarly, sexual, racist, derogatory, threatening, or other inappropriate language and imagery are not appropriate for any conference venue, including sessions.

Recourse

If a participant violates this Anti-Harassment Policy, the event organizers may take any action they deem appropriate, including warning the offender or expelling the offender from this and/or future events. No refunds will be granted to attendees expelled from BA Day due to violations of this policy.

Reporting

If you are being harassed, witness harassment, or have any other concerns, please contact a member of event staff immediately. Event staff can be identified by their badges and are trained to respond appropriately. To connect directly with the duty officer, you can call or text 206.965.5950.

You can also file a report by one of the following:

- File a report by going to <http://www.sqlpass.org/AboutPASS/Governance.aspx> where you will find the incident summary report. Send it to PASS Governance at governance@sqlpass.org.
- File a report by picking up an incident summary report on site during PASS BA Day or by going to <http://www.sqlpass.org/AboutPASS/Governance.aspx> to print the report form.
- There is a drop box onsite at PASS BA Day where you can drop your completed report.
- It is our priority to protect any alleged victim of harassment. As such, attendees may make an anonymous report.

If anyone is in physical danger or requires an immediate response, they are encouraged to notify appropriate law enforcement first (911). This policy and the associated process should not be construed as an emergency response mechanism.

An Anti-Harassment Review Committee (AHRC) made up of the Executive Manager and three members of the Board of Directors designated by the President will be authorized to take action in response to an incident or behavior that violates the Anti-Harassment Policy. After a report is received the (AHRC) will conduct a full investigation and take whatever action it deems appropriate.

Onsite BA Day Anti-Harassment Policy | 2016

---

If you have any questions about the PASS Anti-Harassment Policy, please contact PASS Governance.